Minnesotans are represented by several new leaders like Representatives Angie Craig, Dean Phillips, and Ilhan Omar, and clean water champions like Representative Betty McCollum. In the Senate, advocates know they can count on both Senators, Amy Klobuchar and Tina Smith to stand up for our water, health, and communities.

- Representative Betty McCollum has used her position as chair of the Interior-Environment Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee to reject Trump administration budget proposals that would have slashed funding for the Environmental Protection Agency and devastated programs designed to protect our water and air.
- Representative Ilhan Omar co-sponsored legislation to end subsidies for fossil fuel production.*
